

Press Release ~ For Immediate Release April 18, 2012, St. Petersburg, FL- USA 9:00 A.M. Eastern Daylight Time

Moxy Women Announces Two Miracles in Two Days and a Message to the Next President of the United States at The Moxy Miracle Concert & Healthy Living Expo August 24th and 25th 2012 at the Largo Cultural Center

ST. PETERSBURG, FL (Moxy Women Media) Moxy Women is pleased to announce The Moxy Miracle Concert & Healthy Living Expo. The two day event will take place on August 24th & 25th. The concert starts at 8:00 P.M. and will be held at the Largo Cultural Center's Tonne Playhouse located at 105 Central Park Drive, Largo, Florida 33771. Reserved Ticket Prices start at $28 for the concert. The Expo starts on Saturday and will also be held at the Largo Cultural Center inside the Parkview Ballroom.

In true Moxy form, Moxy Women sets the date for this year's event around the Republican National Convention taking place in the Tampa Bay area. This year all women and men are invited to come together to kick off the evening event with live music and entertainment by this area's best performers.

Believing in miracles, creating hope, wellness education, early detection and new treatments are just part of the theme for the event. This year Moxy Women has decided to do its part to support another organization that is making a big difference in the lives of women, My Hope Chest. This organization founded by Alisa Savoretti, provides hope to uninsured women facing a mastectomy from breast cancer, the number two killer of women in America.

In creating two miracles in two days, Moxy Founder Jean Harper, reached out to well-known physician Robert Rehnke, MD, of the Center for Surgical Excellence. Dr. Rehnke volunteered his hands to help create a miracle for one of the many uninsured women on the list at My Hope Chest. Dr. Rehnke is an esteemed plastic surgeon who believes that women need to be educated about their options. He uses the latest techniques in breast reconstruction for women whose only alternative is to have a mastectomy, return home from surgery feeling whole. Dr. Rehnke reached out to another well-known surgeon in St. Petersburg, Antonio Gayoso, MD who has also agreed to participate as a "second opinion" specialist and also shares Dr. Rehnke's enthusiasm for educating women of their options. Details of this "miracle" will be announced at the concert during a brief presentation with My Hope Chest Founder Alisa Savoretti.

The second miracle will be announced at the Healthy Living Expo on Saturday. The Expo will offer educational sessions to help men and women understand the importance of living a healthy lifestyle. It will feature companies, health professionals, products and services in both the traditional and alternative health care fields that offer new and exciting developments in health care diagnosis and treatment. In addition, inexpensive and free health screening exams and tools will be on display including more advanced screenings for breast cancer, vascular disease and stroke screening. The Expo will also feature fun products that go along with living a healthy lifestyle including earth-inspired products such as jewelry, art and organic goods.

The Friday evening concert will deliver important messages through music and entertainment. The evening will start off with a song dedicated to the next President of the United States. Lyrics from the song touch on sensitive topics related to the American people such as “Corporate Downsized, Dreams Unrealized” and encouraging words echoing “Americans helping Americans, it’s a new day, a new America.” The songwriter, Chantelle Ashby will perform the song for the first time in public during the concert.

The concert will feature the area’s most talented performers, vocalists and musicians: Michigan born singer/songwriter and musician Jayne Kelli, Florida native and award winning performer Rebecca Zapen, American Idol Experience Dream Ticket winner Vanessa Quillao, actress and singer Becca McCoy, singer/songwriter and musician A.J. Swearingen, a special performance by Moving Arts of Tampa Bay-Artistic Director Beth Brier, the talented vocalists Jennifer Real, Rossana Spallino, Chantelle Ashby and Reggie Dockens, band members Benjamin Miller, Chris Thompson, Adam Shoemaker, and Doug Willcox.

Sponsors for this year’s event thus far include SuperSonic Imagine, Transformation Magazine, ProStar Recording Studio, Videophotog, Euphoria Salon and Spa, Tampa Bay Woman Newspaper, Celtic Complexion, and the Center for Surgical Excellence.

About Moxy Women:

Moxy Women™ is a comprehensive on-line magazine for women igniting the flame of passion within all women to find, keep, and share their Moxy (courage) through inspiring stories, empowering events, and worldwide community.

Women Taking Care of Business® the parent corporation was founded in 2003 and launched the website MoxyWomen.com in September 2007. The inspiration for the site came to Founder Jean Harper after the death of her beloved sister Ann in April 2005. Ms. Harper’s sister died at an early age and had suffered for many years from low self-esteem resulting from her experiences as a victim of domestic violence. On the day of her death Ms. Harper received this message, “Don’t let this happen to you” and has since been on a mission to work for women to help them discover and keep their moxy.

The website features inspiring stories of Moxy Women and a community of women interested in continuing the transformation of women’s lives through shared enlightenment.

Editors: For Full Details on this event go to:

<http://www.MoxyWomen.com>

Interviews are available by request. Send an email to:

info@MoxyWomen.com

Sponsorship and Exhibitor Information available by request.

